

10 POINTS PRIOR TO PURCHASING USED PALLET RACK

The Follow Information and Questions Should Be Asked of Any Person or Company Selling Used Pallet Racking Prior to Purchase.

Used Pallet Racking May Be an Acceptable Option or it May End up Costing You More Money than New. If You Are Purchasing Used Rack or Moving it from an Existing Facility it Is Important to Determine If it Will Pass Existing Building, Fire and Seismic Codes.

Questions:

1. Do They Have a Business License in the City You Are Located In?
2. Do They Have a Current Resale Licence If They Are Charging Sales Tax?
3. Do They Have Liability Insurance to Protect You If the Racking Has a Failure Problem?
4. Does the Racking You Are Purchasing Meet Existing California Building and Fire Codes as Well as Seismic?
5. Is the Manufacture of the Racking Still in Business So Racking May Be Added to When Necessary?
6. Do You Feel Comfortable When the Company You Are Purchasing the Racking from States No Warranty, Returns, Refunds, Credits or Exchanges?
7. Does the Company Want to Sell You What They Have Instead Of That Is Needed for Best Usage of Space Available?
8. Is the Racking You Are Purchasing Fabricated by a Certified and Approved Manufacturer?
9. What Are the Permitting Requirements?
10. What Is the Condition of the Rack You Are Purchasing?
11. Is the Installation Contractor Licensed and Bonded?